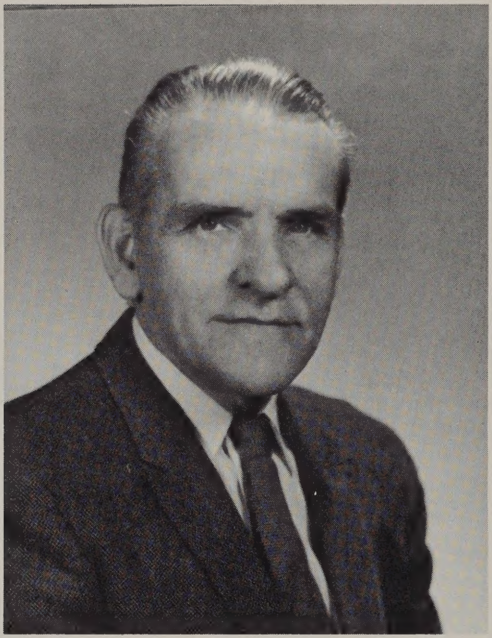
DEDICATION



Although Mr. Houde is relatively isolated in his position as Industrial Arts Instructor, it is doubtful that any one teacher has had more influence on everyone connected with Littleton High School. In addition to providing a fine base for pupils who plan to learn a trade or mechanical profession, Mr. Houde stresses other phases of school life so that Littleton High School may build strong citizens and future leaders. Because of his dedication to us, the students, we wish to dedicate this, the Keyhole, 1962, to Mr. William Houde.

Intermission
Mr. James Ball

WEEK FIVE: Between soccer and holidays, the players attend about three rehearsals. Everyone is reading from the book, sure that five weeks is a very long time. WEEK FOUR: Again the soccer schedule interferes with many a planned rehearsal. The cast begins to learn their lines in earnest, and many households are driven to the verge of insanity as horrible English accents begin to improve very slowly. WEEK THREE: One actor is rehearsing on crutches, and the play books begin to look dog-eared as the cast begins its annual panic. WEEK TWO: Various members of the cast learn the fun of rehearsing at 11:30 on a Sunday night, and meet the challenge of ducking stage hands and ladders while trying to remember a twenty-line speech. WEEK ONE: The cripple can now walk, even if he doesn't know his lines. The stage hands are learning the joys of scene changing.

DAY THREE: The costumes arrive at 9:30 P. M. after traveling over most of the state. One dress clashes with the scenery, other costumes do not fit, people lose hats, and confusion reigns.

DAY BEFORE: The cast discovers, too late, the feeling of not knowing lines, the difficulty of eating cucumber sandwiches with a dry mouth, and the need for rest. Well, they say a poor dress rehearsal means a good opening night.

NIGHT ONE: Our make-up done, we wait to enter. Oh, those wonderful prompters!

NIGHT TWO: The old "pros" forget very little; everyone concerned is at ease and almost sorry it is over. Oh, by the way, it was great fun.

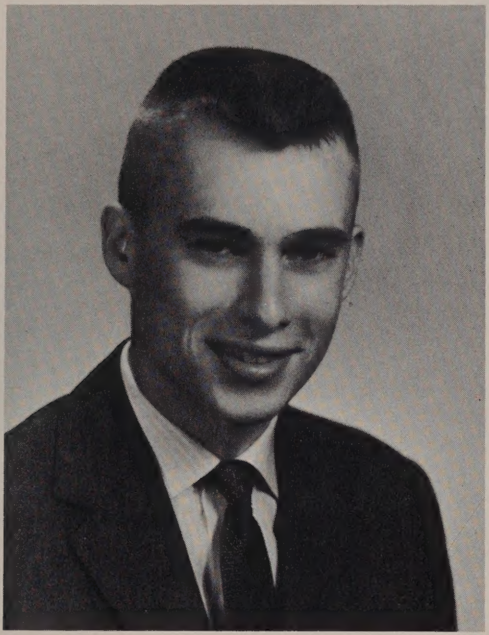
Travel

JOZEF VAN RANST, BELGIAN STUDENT AT LITTLETON HIGH SCHOOL, SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE



Traveling is a beautiful thing. One gets acquainted with other countries and sees how they are. A short trip, however, doesn't reveal the reasons why things are different. That is what my stay here has given me - a deeper understanding of the Americans and their way of life. I found out why American schools are different and I learned to appreciate the things in which they excel among schools of other nations. I was very happy to see that the school system here does not want to make memorizing-machines and book slaves of their students, but wants to give a general education. It prepares good citizens, well-armed for the struggle of life.

Littleton High School made a good impression on me. I enjoyed the friendliness and willingness of both teachers and students. I appreciated being an accepted member of the Senior Class, the hospitality of the students and their willingness to help and explain everything. I also wish to thank my teachers who were always ready to give me extra help.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

This year the girls varsity basketball team started off the season by winning its first game. The remainder of the games, however, did not bring the success for which the team had hoped.

The team deeply appreciates and thanks its coaches Miss Leino and Mrs. Leiry. Mention should also be made of the diligence of the team managers, Beverly Rood and Weslynn Charter.

This years' team was comprised of the following players: Capt -- K. Slez, Co-Capt -- C. Michaels, S. Harvey, D. Hardy, M. Pasciuto, S. Lothrop, D. Leonard, M. Rush, G. Wright, L. Chase, S. Tucci, N. Wood, J. La Chance, N. Smith, J. Cantino, R. Overgaard, L. Upson.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

K. Bentley, R. Erickson, A. Ashness, B. Jenkins, S. Krohn, R. Lang, C. Cookingham, L. La Fleur, J. Charter, C. Wilder, B. McMurray, L. Sawyer, S. Partridge.

The softball team began the 1961 season with five straight wins. Combined with a record of four straight wins at the end of the 1960 season, gave them a grand total of nine straight wins, which was broken by a loss to Harvard. The final record for the season was five wins and two losses, which has been the best record in the history of the L.H.S. softball team. The team was comprised of the following players: Nancy Sutton, Janice Coulter, Lillian Portanova, Karen Slez, Caroline Fisher, Cheryl Staffell, Andrea Kimball, Cheryl Cookingham, Sarah Kimball, Carol Michaels, June Sheldon, Sandy Lothrop, and Gail Seger.

The Littleton High School basketball team with three returning starters and a crop of new Freshmen and Sophomores streaked to 11-5 record in regular season play. After opening the season with five victories, the Tigers stumbled for a short time but finally pulled themselves together to end in a first place tie for the championship of the Wachusetts League -- Eastern Division. Unfortunately, they were beaten by the eventual champion in a playoff game.

SOCCER

In its third year Littleton High School's soccer team put together its best season with a record of 5 wins, 6 losses, and 1 tie. With six starters from last year's team and a sprinkling of newcomers, the Tigers certainly won more than their share of games.

Although soccer is a relatively new sport at Littleton, home games consistently draw large crowds and usually there is at least one spectator bus for away games. A special tribute should be paid to Coach Karl Lindquist who has done much to increase the school's interest in soccer by taking a group of boys who knew nothing about the sport, and turning them into an exciting team.

BASEBALL AND TRACK

The Littleton Track team only in its 3rd season, with four veterans from last year's team, finished with a fine and successful season under the guidance of Mr. Frank Annaldo. The javlin throwing was added to the list of events in which Littleton participated. The baseball team under the direction of its coach, Mr. Malcom Andrews, also had a fine record. The returning veterans in track were D. Lowry, D. Lothrop, P. Bolinger, and D. Marcus and in baseball P. Wynott, R. Ford, R. Byrne, and B. O'Keefe.
